The Court learned that Mr. Cordova has remained at Platte County Detention Center despite the Court's November 30, 2022, order directing that Cordova undergo restoration proceedings. The Court heard from USM Raimo who advised the Court that, after looking into the matter, no one at the USMS received the NEF containing the Court's order. The Court incorporated by reference its previous order on evaluation and directed the USMS to transport the defendant to a facility for restoration proceedings as quickly as possible without further delay.
